Commercial Coach Compliance Label (used unit)

This label is issued after an onsite inspection has been conducted on a used commercial coach that does not have a compliance label affixed to the unit. The label and certificate of compliance are issued only if the structure complies with the building codes adopted by NAC 461 or NAC 489.

NRS 489.110 “Label of compliance” defined. “Label of compliance” means a label permanently attached to:

1. A commercial coach upon the completion of the construction of the coach; or
2. A mobile home or commercial coach upon the completion of any reconstruction or alteration of the home or coach,

È under the authority of the Division which certifies that the mobile home or commercial coach is in compliance with standards adopted by the Division.

(Added to NRS by 1973, 1066; A 1977, 1453; 1979, 1215; 1983, 778; 1993, 2052)

NAC 489.185 Certificates and labels of compliance. (NRS 489.231, 489.241)

1. The Division will issue labels of compliance to manufacturers of commercial coaches if:
 - (a) The Division has approved plans and specifications;
 - (b) The Division has inspected the manufacturing plant to approve the quality control of its construction and the qualifications of its key personnel; and
 - (c) The manufacturing plant has employed an independent firm to certify compliance with all applicable construction standards.
 2. The manufacturer shall apply for labels of compliance upon the form supplied by the Division.
 3. The Division will issue a certificate of compliance to the owner of a used commercial coach and attach a label of compliance to such a commercial coach if:
 - (a) The certificate of compliance or label of compliance is missing;
 - (b) The commercial coach complies with the:
 - (1) Codes and standards adopted by the Division in NAC 489.177; and
 - (2) Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et seq., and the regulations adopted pursuant thereto; and
 - (c) Any reconstruction or alteration of the commercial coach has been completed and approved by the Division.
